

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
DISTRICT OF NEVADA

SONALOLITA WILSON,

Plaintiff(s),

v.

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, et al.,

Defendant(s).

Case No. 2:18-cv-01241-JCM-NJK

Order

[Docket No. 114]

Pending before the Court is a stipulation to extend the time for filing the joint proposed pretrial order by four months. Docket No. 114. The Court does not find such a lengthy extension warranted in these circumstances. First, it does not take four months to prepare deposition transcripts for trial. Second, the parties reference attending private mediation or a settlement conference, but they have not identified a date on which either would take place. Accordingly, the stipulation to extend is GRANTED in part and DENIED in part. The deadline to file the joint proposed pretrial order is EXTENDED to May 4, 2022. Any renewed request for extension based on a private mediation must include details as to that mediation, including most significantly the date on which the mediation will take place. Any renewed request for extension premised on a settlement conference must be accompanied by a stipulation to hold a settlement conference.¹

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated: April 1, 2022

Nancy J. Koppe
United States Magistrate Judge

¹ A stipulation for settlement conference must include five dates on which all participants are available.
